Blanes / Costa Brava

Located in Blanes, the first municipality on the Costa Brava. It is considered a seaside town of inspiration for artists, a romantic and flowery town, a town of fireworks and festivals, of sport and services. A unique showcase of products from the sea and the land that welcomes us all year round. This is a spectacular renovated town house in an excellent location. Situated in a quiet area in the centre of Blanes, on the second line of the coast and close to the main services and shops. It was built in 1936 and renovated in 2005. Set on a plot of 221 m² of which 360 m² are built. Divided into four independent floors and one under roof, which are accessed by means of a lift or by the main staircase. On the ground floor there is a large hall that leads to a garage with parking space for one car and an independent flat. It consists of a living-dining room with open plan kitchen, direct access to the swimming pool area which communicates with a double bedroom and a complete bathroom with shower. In the living room there is a pre-installation for a fireplace. The first floor is ideal for business use. There are two offices which are complemented by a waiting room and a large work area with a toilet. The first floor is the living area. It consists of a living-dining room of...
