

Country house with large plot of land or farm for horses in the middle of nature in Campins

Ref: PH103394

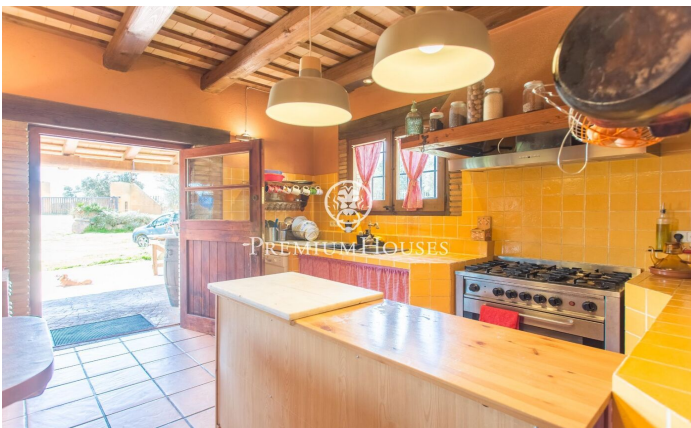

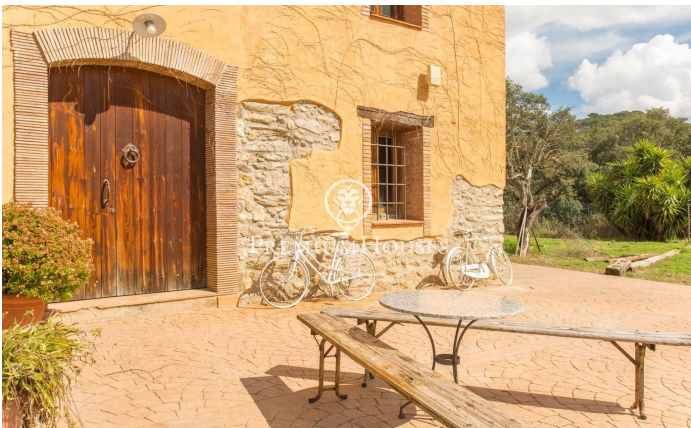

Campins / Other locations

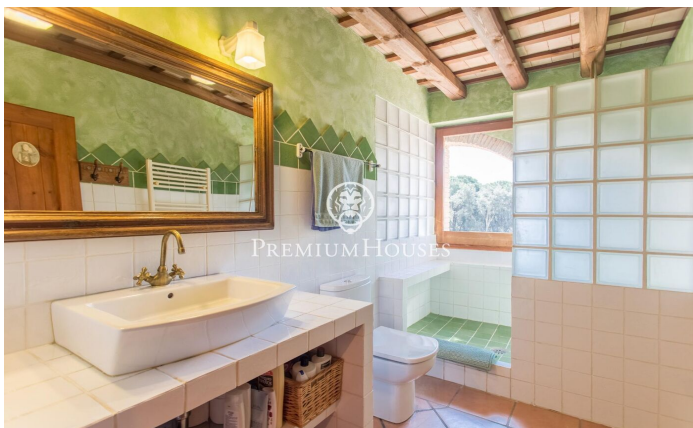

This is a unique property, which combines the charm of rustic architecture with a privileged natural environment. The house, restored with high quality materials, offers ample spaces full of light and comfort. Peace and privacy at its best. An ideal place for those seeking a quiet life in harmony with nature, without sacrificing comfort and style. The 300m² house is distributed over two floors. On the first floor, we find an open-plan space that joins an authentic kitchen with a double-height living room, where a huge fireplace adds a special touch. The abundant natural light floods the whole house, creating a bright and pleasant atmosphere. There is also a guest toilet and a double bedroom, currently used as an office. On the first floor are the three bedrooms. The master suite is of a large size, with a dressing room and a private bathroom complete with hydro-massage bathtub. In addition, there is another double bedroom and a bedroom on two levels, which gives it a unique touch. The floor is completed with an additional bathroom with shower. The house is built with wooden carpentry and double glazing, which guarantees good thermal and acoustic insulation. The French oak and Valsain pine beams give the house a rustic and elegant character. Catalan stoneware floors and pre-in...
